

Bath Time!

The editors' selections from an exciting array of new options add fresh style to your private oasis

Bronze Age
Rocky Mountain Hardware's Pond sink in silicon bronze is available in various finishes; $4,750.

Bamboo chic
Made from sustainable bamboo, Stone Forest's Quattro Bamboo Vessel sink sits on a wall-mounted Bento Box; sink, $750.

Vanity fare
Kallista's Vir Stil Console Lavatory has metal legs, the Vir Stil Minimal Basin Set and lever handles. Sold together (as shown); $4,454.

Steel beauty
The Elegaza bath from Diamond Spas in stainless steel features an elliptical shape and is complemented by a contoured bottom and streamlined head riser; $9,800.

High tech
From the Grohe Ondus collection, the AquaFountain in VelvetBlack is a shower system that combines Grohe DreamSpray and DreamFall technologies to create the perfect water flow; $7,400.

Dream bath
Conran & Partners Aveo tub designed for Villeroy & Boch in white ceramic presents an oval profile inspired by the shape of an egg; $8,820.

Cool copper
The Tatra sink, made of recycled copper with an antique finish, is by Native Trails; $1,198. Also available in a brushed-nickel finish.

New angle
Designed by Antonio Citterio for Hansgrohe, the Axor Citterio M single-handle wall-mounted faucet features an angled spout; starting at $585.

Deluxe
Walker Zanger's Luxe Vanity is made of oak with an Espresso finish and brushed-nickel accents; starting at $5,600.

